SUBJECT: SIG Meeting on Poland, February 5

SUMMARY OF CONCLUSIONS

✓ The SIG discussed the merits of a proposed high level mission to Western Europe aimed at (1) defining the nature of European undertakings not to undermine U.S. sanctions in response to the Polish crisis and (2) discussing new forms of pressure on the USSR. Extraterritoriality, components for the Yamal pipeline, and a broader regime of credit restraints were discussed. It was agreed that planning for a mission and a number of background papers would be assigned. The SIG was scheduled to reconvene on Wednesday, February 10.

ACTION ASSIGNMENTS

The NSC was tasked to do an overview paper proposing the timing and objectives of the trip, the order of countries to be visited, and a presentation of tradeoffs.

Treasury was tasked to do papers on the effectiveness of credit curbs and on the Soviet credit situation.

The State Department was tasked with a paper on extraterritoriality and a separate paper on alternative energy options.

The CIA was tasked to provide a paper on the status of the pipeline project.
